Ltd/Richard Frankel Gene Wolsk/Alan M. Shore and Susan S. Myerberg in association with Playwrights Horizons, Off-Broadway in 1987.

CAST NOTES

Dee Renko (Daisy) is more than happy to be revisiting Miss Daisy, a role she played in SLT's Driving Miss Daisy production some 20 years ago. Although Dee has been involved with community theatre throughout the United States and in Europe, she considers SLT her theatre home. Long time theatre patrons may remember Dee in such shows as Steel Magnolias (the 90's version), I'm Not Rappaport, Moon Over Buffalo, The Rabbit Hole, last season's Agnes of God and numerous other productions. As a former SLT board member, Dee would like to remind patrons that there are other roles they can play at SLT other than the ones on stage. SLT can always use volunteers to work with costumes and sets, help backstage, in the box office, and with publicity, to name a few. There is no "community theatre" without the community, and she for one, is grateful for you, the community. Dee dedicates her performance to her grandmother, Juanita Thomsie Walker Hollingsworth, another strong minded Southern widow with an only child who taught elementary school for nearly 25 years.

Hugh China (Hoke) is returning to the SLT stage again for more fun and a chance to work with some talented cast and crew. Even after multiple shows, it's still a lot of fun. Thanks to all of you for supporting SLT.

Hunter Cappelmann (Boolie) is very excited to be on stage again. This is his second show with SLT after his debut in The Full Monty. He enjoys long walks to the fridge and fresh juice!!

David R. Brown (Director) is directing his third show for SLT with Crimes of the Heart and A Bad Year for Tomatoes preceding Daisy. David also played Boolie in the first SLT production of Daisy in 1997. His roles at SLT include Atticus Finch in To Kill A Mockingbird, Willy Loman in Death of a Salesman, Norman Thayer in On Golden Pond, Mr. Green in Visiting Mr. Green, Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, Fagan in Oliver and the Narrator in A Christmas Story. He is a retired CPA and is married to Joni Mabry Brown, one of SLT's music directors.

Angela Keller (Stage Manager) is thrilled to be part of this production. Any time she can volunteer is great, but Stage Manager is her favorite gig. Some of the shows that she has been able to be a part of were Death of a Salesman, Black Eagles, Miracle on 34th Street, The Full Monty, and The Mountaintop. In the past she has run the light board, worked in the box office, painted sets, done props and even sang and danced in a chorus or two. She thanks her Mother and Father for instilling in her the courage that she can do anything.

Sylvia Pickell (Costumes) has been with SLT since the 1999 performance of Little Prince Sylvia has worked as a member of the SLT crew in over 85 productions. Yes, she even made at on stage in Octette Bridge Club, Ugly Art, and Harvey, along with several Reader's Theatre shows. She has costumed several Furman Middle School musicals and volunteers with the SHS Drama Booster Club. Sylvia would like to encourage the Sumter community to donate their period clothing (particularly men's suits) to SLT.

Kendall Jones (Props/Stage Crew) enjoys cooking, but does not have sharp cutlery.

Jennica Greco (Props/Stage Crew) has decided to get Kendall knives for Christmas, but she says that every year.

Michelle Ross (Light Board) a long time patron of Sumter Little Theatre, is now in training for full membership into the theatre community. To date, Sumer trusts her to sell tickets, Sylvia trusts her to dress actors, Randy trusts her to paint a straight line, Jenn and Ken trust her to set and strike a stage, Angela and David S. trust her to turn on and off lights, and Michelle is most amazed that directors Eric, Carmela, and David B. trust her at all. She's got them all fooled...don't tell.

There will be a fifteen minute intermission.
The concession area in the lobby will be open during intermission.
